

Gene Center Newsletter October 2006

500 visitors at the open day

At the open day on August 3rd, about 500 visitors came to the Gene Center to listen to the presentations, to take the lab tour, and to join the summer party. We thank everybody who helped to make this day such a great success. For impressions please visit:

http://www.lmb.uni-muenchen.de/mainframes/Land_der_Ideen.html

Daniel Wilson joins the Gene Center

Daniel Wilson will be a new group leader at the Center and will set up a research group starting January 2007. Daniel comes from the Max-Planck Institute for Molecular Genetics in Berlin and studies mechanistic aspects of translation and antibiotic function.

New Master students selected

For the interfaculty course Master of Biochemistry, 15 new students were selected, three of them from abroad. We will welcome the new students in the cafeteria on October 19th at 2 pm.

Seminar series

Our Gene Center/SFB646 seminars restart on October 9th, and always take place on Mondays at 5 pm. 15 seminars are already scheduled for this year's programme. Please visit:

<http://www.lmb.uni-muenchen.de/mainframes/seminars.htm>

Meeting of the Bavarian Elite Network (ENB)

The first members meeting of the Elitenetzwerk Bayern, which includes the PhD programs "NanoBioTech" & "Proteins in health and disease" will take place on October 20-21, 2006.

<http://www.elitenetzwerk-bayern.de/>

1st Roemer Foundation award ceremony

The first award ceremony of the newly established Roemer Foundation for the advancement of chemistry and biochemistry in Munich will take place on December 8, 3-6 pm. Please visit:

<http://www.cup.uni-muenchen.de/roemer/index.php>

Ringberg Meeting

This year's Ringberg Meeting will take place on January 3-5, 2007.

Annual Retreat 2007

The next annual retreat of the Gene Center will be on May 11-13, 2007 in Wildbad-Kreuth.

2nd International Gene Center/SFB646 symposium

The international symposium will take place on October 12-13, 2007 at the Gene Center.

Newsletter of the Gene Center Munich, <http://www.lmb.uni-muenchen.de/>